_____: I hereby acknowledge that I have been counseled concerning the Navy's Physical Readiness Program as set forth in OPNAVINST 6110.1. I understand that all members of the Navy, except those excused for medical reasons, shall attain and maintain a condition of health and physical readiness consistent with their duties. I also understand that remedial training will be required for those who fall below prescribed standards of physical fitness and body fat. Continued failure over a reasonable period of time to show progress in meeting minimum Navy Standards, when there are no medically limiting circumstances, shall result in consideration for an administrative separation. Member's initials: _____

_____: I understand that Department of the Navy's policy is to accommodate the doctrinal or traditional observances of the religious faith practiced by individual members when they will not have an adverse impact on military readiness. I understand accommodations of a member's religious practices cannot be guaranteed at all times but must depend on military necessity. I understand that determination of military necessity rests entirely with my commanding officer. Member's initials: _____

_____: If selected, I understand that my appointment as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy/ Navy Reserve is being accomplished prior to completion of a required security investigation and issuance of a Top Secret/Secret security clearance. I further understand that if as a result of the post-commissioning investigative process, I am determined to be unacceptable for appointment as a commissioned officer, I will be subject to discharge from the U.S. Navy/Navy Reserve. Member's initials: _____

_____: I understand the Navy's policy on tattoo, body art, body mutilation and body markings. I further understand that I am not to obtain or have any additional tattoos, body art, body mutilation, body or body markings applied to my body while in school or awaiting commissioning. Failure to comply with this warning could result in my release from all commissioning programs. Member's initials: _____
